

Leading Program Course for graduate students, staff and faculty members

English Writing and Ethics 2015/16

Intensive Lectures

The lecturer, Prof. Giles has taught scientific writing classes for graduate students at UC Davis for years. It will be a great opportunity for you to attend the course offered at a high level Graduate School in the US to improve your English writing skills and to learn research ethics.

In the intensive lectures continued from the satellite lectures, Prof. Giles comes to TUAT and provides the lectures and practical instructions.

Prof. Ken Giles
UC Davis
