

English Writing and Ethics 2016/17

Intensive Lectures in March

The lecturer, Prof. Giles, is a specialist of agricultural engineering and has also taught scientific writing or presentation for graduate students at UC Davis for years. He will be invited to TUAT for the intensive lectures as a part of EWE course and lecture on English presentation. You can improve your presentation skills together with your class mates. All grad students, faculty members, and staffs are welcome!
